Member No. 85632,	)	HIS ENROLLMENT AS AN
	)	INVOLUNTARY INACTIVE ATTORNEY
A Member of the State Bar.	)

On July 25, 2012, the court filed and served a decision in the above-entitled matter, recommending the disbarment of respondent Eugene Hannon (respondent) and ordering him involuntarily enrolled as an inactive member of the State Bar of California under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (c)(4). The order involuntarily enrolling respondent inactive was effective on July 28, 2012.

On August 3, 2012, respondent filed a motion for an order temporarily reinstating him as an active member of the State Bar of California and postponing his involuntary inactive enrollment (motion). The Office of the Chief Trial Counsel (State Bar) filed an opposition to respondent's motion on August 6, 2012.

After reviewing and considering respondent's motion and the State Bar's opposition thereto, the court issues the following order: Respondent's involuntary inactive enrollment under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (c)(4) is temporarily stayed effective upon the filing of this order through August 20, 2012, for the sole, limited purpose of permitting respondent to represent Thelma Nelson in a pending dissolution of marriage action presently set for trial on August 8, 2012, in the Contra Costa County Superior Court, Action D10-03861. Thelma Nelson is the only client respondent may represent from the filing of this order through August 20, 2012, and respondent may represent Thelma Nelson only in the pending dissolution of marriage action noted above. In short, respondent may not engage in the practice of law except with respect to his limited representation of Thelma Nelson. Furthermore, effective August 21, 2012, the temporary stay of respondent's involuntary inactive enrollment will be lifted, and respondent will again be involuntarily enrolled inactive for all purposes under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (c)(4).
